Culturecom expand revenue source

Culturecom foresees the biggest hits for the upcoming year to be comics, 3D images and social networking and hence integrates these three aspects into the first global Chinese social gaming network – Ucan.com.

Ucan.com aims to provide a new platform for all Chinese comic lovers, to improve and develop Hong Kong comics into becoming advanced 3D animations, and to transform Hong Kong into the world's next base for the cultural and creative anime industry.

Through involving in Ucan.com, comic fans can not only create their own animate figures, but also share with other enthusiasts their own work. Ucan.com aims to promote to the world of Hong Kong animations' specialties and characteristics, and overcome the Western's domination of the animate industry.
